Fur Trade Organization

The International Fur Federation was established in 1949 and is the only organisation to represent the international fur industry and regulate its practices and trade. The federation promotes the business of fur, establishing certification and traceability programmes on welfare and the environment. It is also committed to supporting young designers and retailers who intend to go into fur and fashion.

The International Fur Federation represents 56 members associations in over 40 countries around the world. The members encompass all parts of the fur trade including farmers, trappers, dressers, manufacturers, brokers, auction houses, retailers and designers. Each of these members have signed a strict code of conduct committing them to upholding the industry-relevant laws they fall under in their home countries.

Local Authorities

The Region of Western Macedonia covers a total surface of 9451 km², 7.2% of country's total. The nature of the region is mountainous, while Aliakmonas travels down through it. The Region of Western Macedonia is situated in the northern part of Greece and borders with Albania and FYROM. It is the only region without sea coast. Western Macedonia is divided into the regional units of Grevena, Kastoria, Kozani and Florina.

The productive character of the area is still determined by the energy industry and secondarily the fur industry. However, the virgin and still underexplored landscapes provide a fruitful ground for tourism to develop.

Furs : Readymade garments of fur skins & pieces.

With a history dating back three generations, BALLI Fur fashion has a lot to be proud of. It all started in 1947 when grandfather Alkiviadis Ballis made and sold his garments around Europe and the USA. Some years later, he taught the craft of fur-making to his son, Nikolaos Ballis, who started his own business, in its present form, was founded by grandson Alkiviadis Ballis in 2005.

BALLI Fur annually designs outstanding mink collections, garments trimmed with mink, fox, sable fur and fabrics, using high-quality skins from NAFA, Kopenhagen auctions and other auction houses.

The company designs and produces women's ready-to-wear fur fashion collections & Sure Measure Fur Fashion with:
